DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-28 and 41 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Casterlin et al. (USPN 6,372,515).

Casterlin discloses a device for the visual analysis of test strips (53), each comprising at least one delimited area (47) in which,--after contact with a sample to be examined a visually detectable signal can be generated, with a) a positioning device (68) comprising at least one seat for a test strip and/or a test strip unit (11 ) consisting of a plurality of test strips (12) connected in a defined spatial arrangement; and b) a image generating device which graphically records at least one of the delimited areas (50) of a test strip arranged in a seat of the positioning device or of a test strip unit, and which transmits the recording result to an image analysis device, c) with the image analysis device qualitatively and/or quantitatively analyzing the visually detectable signals for every test strip (fig. 1, 25).
